

Programme Learning Outcomes M.Ed.

On successful completion of the two-year M.Ed. programme, teacher educators will be able to:

- Get the opportunity to excel in the field of education with multiple skills.
- Understand the need of teacher education in the context of changing needs of school education.
- Integrate information and communication technology to teaching-learning and training transaction
- Develop competency in development of curriculum, syllabus, textbooks, and instructional materials, evaluation and assessment.
- Acquire research and data-analysis skills
- Develop knowledge, skills and mind set appropriate to various specialists' roles such as educational administrators, guidance counselors, designers of teaching learning resources etc.
- Have understanding about the school education system in philosophical, social, cultural, political, economical and historical perspectives
- Developing the self-concept and self esteem of the prospective teacher educators and empower them with some necessary skills so as to enhance their professional capacity for a balanced professional life.
- Plan strategies to deal with classroom diversity.
- To develop skills involved in dealing with the academic and personal problems of the learners.
- Enable the trainees to develop competencies in educational planning, supervision and administration.
- to introspect into the nature of educational problems and generate diversified knowledge with dynamic educational plans and policies
- Gain a grasp of major philosophical options available in the field of education.
- Apply the knowledge & skills to deal with Emerging Issues and respond to these issues by applying critical, constructive and creative thought process.